Wrap Shack grabs title in Dodgeball tourney

The second annual Dodgeball Tournament at Ophir School last week turned out to be a huge success, raising over $2,000 for the Big Sky Community Corporation. Organizer Robin Hicks said the event was a success and lots of fun.

Eleven teams participated in the tournament over three days last week.

The Wrap Shack walked away with first place and the Hillbilly Market took second place.

The Wrap Shack's name will be added to a trophy, which will be on display at the post office.

Profits from the event will be put towards Phase 1 of the park project, including infrastructure for a second softball field, multi-purpose fields and a temporary concert venue.
